I stood by the marge of the summer rea, As the day was quietly dying, When the waves were lulled in a dreamless sleep, And the seemews plaintively crying.

The broad zed disk of the setting sun Was poised on the mighty ocean,
And the wavelets were breaking one by one
On the shore, with a dreamy motion. Buta gorgeous curtain of blue and gold Now fell on the sleeping billow, and the sun, like a monarch infirm and old, Reclined on a glowing pillow.

But again a change, as he sank to rest, On his couch of surpassing glory. For the hues that tembled on ocean's breast Mocked the wonders of Eastern story. glowly these beauties all passed away, As I saw Night's shadows descending, And I deemed it well such a perfect day Should have such a periect ending.

FOREIGN TTEMS

-A recent unsuccessful attempt to kidnep General Prim has caused great excitement in

-Tamberlik, the once famous tenor, has established himself as a gunsmith at Madrid, where he has undertaken an important government contract for the manufacture and alteration of firearms.

-Napoleon was asked the other day if he believed the elections would be as favorable to the government as they ought. "I think so," he replied, "if the Opposition is not perfidious enough to be moderate."

-The German Salon says that Mr. Burlingame is an American only by birth. He speaks French, dresses like a European, and gives dinner parties and balls like the most accomplished courtiers, while Madame Burlingame receives the guests with all the grace of a perfect Parisienne.

-The Emperor Alexander, of Russia, it is reported, is seriously indisposed, his illness having originated in the shock arising from an accident while he was driving in an open carriage over a bridge across the Neva. His medical attendants are very uneasy at the symptoms, fearing an internal injury.

-Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone, while out riding, narrowly escaped a bad accident. A Paris paper represents the lady as speaking thus of the occurrence : "I never thought of William; I never thought of myself: I never thought of my children. I only thought, what on earth will become of the bill relating to the Irish

-The velocipede is condemned by all the English medical journals. The Laucet says t hat the exercise, like all gymnastic feats, requires for safety that it should be carefully regulated, that a high rate of speed should only be gradually acquired, and that great efforts should be studiously avoided. Under these circumstances, the use of the velocipede becomes a toil and not an amusement.

-It created a great deal of talk on the Longchamps promenade the other day, that the Princess de Metternich and Adele Turmolin, a notorious woman of the Parisian demi-monde, wore precisely the same toilettes. It was evident that the Princess and the demi-mondaine had the same dressmaker. Malicious tongues asserted that the frail Adele had got her toilette made first, and that the Princess, after hearing of it, or lered hers to be copied from it.

-Mr. Chaplin, the winner of the Darby, and the new Tory star in the House of Commons, is one of the richest men in England and an intimate friend of Tempson, having been born in the same county and known the Tennyson family from his childhood. The brilliant woman who jilted him in order to become the wife of the Marquis of Hastings is at present a widow in somewhat reduced circumstances; and if Chaplin is still willing she may be perhaps won more easily than the Derby in 1867.

-Minister Burlingam) rebuked the foreigners who thought they "outranked" him in Paris, in the following style: "We Americans do not raise the question of rank. We receive all gentlemen as occupying a common level. But if you raise the question of position, we outrank you. You are nothing but dukes, marquises and counts. We belong to the royal family. We are the equal of our President. We are all heir apparents to the throne. W stand up for our order, and if need be, we fight for our order."

ing the conventional Yankee, presenting a large pie, partly covered with a cloth, marked, "Claim, £800,000,000," to the United States representative at St. James': John Bull's broad back seen in the distance. Says Jonathan (as interpreted by Mr. Sumner,) "Well, Reverdy! Guess this lot 'll about du for your friend John Bull thar." To which Mr. Reverdy Johnson replies-"Ha! I've dined with him a good deal lately, and he won't eat that, I promise you."

-The young Marquis of Buto is edifying the dwellers in Jerusalem by his piety and his liberality. He passes long bours in tears and prayer at the various spots where the last scenes of the Passion are supposed to have been enacted. His elmoner, Monsignor Capel, has been preaching in English to large bodies of pilgrims belonging to numerous English and American creeds, and his remarkable eloquence invariably brings together a large and heterogeneous audience.

-Bellac, the famous French painter, who lives at Orleans, was recently engaged at his studio, and had an entirely naked male model before him. Suddenly one of the candidates for the Corps Legislatif entered the room, and, after explaining to him his views on the principal political questions, requested the painter to vote for him. "I should like to do so," replied Beliac, "unfortunately I cannot vote for you here, because my name is registered in Paris. But," he continued, with a twinkle in his eye, "that gentleman, (pointing to the naked model) is a voter in this district, and—"
"Ab, my dear sir," said the candidate, holding out his hand to the naked fellow, "I am happy to make your acquaintance. You have heard my programme—may I count on your vote?" —A clock has just been completed for the cathedral of Beauvais, France, which far surpasses all the existing specimens of the clockmaker's art. It contains no less than 90,000 wheels, and indicates, among many other things too numerous to recite, the days of the week, the month, the year, the signs of the zodiac, the equation of time, the course of the planets, the phases of the moon, the time at every capital in the world, the movable feasts for a hundred years, the saints' days, &c. Perhaps the most curious part of the mechanism is that which gives the additional day in leap year, and which consequently is called into action only once in four years. The clock is wound up every eight days. The main dial is twelve feet in diameter, and the total cost exceeds $50 COO. -One of the most important reforms an-nounced by the Turkish Government is the establishment of a civil code, which will be binding on all the subjects of the Sultan, white out distinction of creed. A legislative commission, to be appointed for this purpose, will commence its labors by a careful examination of all the precepts of the Koran relating to the civil organization of society, with the object of using them as a basic for a new code. The Koran will then no longer be, as hitherto, the official text-book for courts of justice, be only be recogn sed as an authority in questions of dogma and religious practice. This reform will doubtless be violently o posed by the olergy and the Turks of the old school, but it has been approved by the Sultan and his ministers, and steps are already being taken for introducing it.

LIVER MÊDICINE, Half Loan Taken. ANODYNE PAIN KILL IT.

ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS, AGUE PILLS, Dysentery Cordial, Female Tonic

PURIFYING PILLS.

THE EXCELLENT REMEDIES OF O. S. PROPHITT, M. D., need no recommendation—their well known power in removing the disease parallal to our Southern climate having already established for them an exviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons living in the South are predisposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by ell intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophiti's Liver Medicine and Anti-Bilicus Pills strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver, which in nine cases out of en, is at the bottom of the Couple, Dyspepsia, Colte, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions, &c., so common among our people. Jamache, Toothache, Acute Bheumatism, Neuralgia and bodily pains of every hind fice before PHOPHIPT'S PAIS KILL IT

PROPHITT'S PAIN MILL IT ike chaff before the wind. PROPHITT'S LIVER MEDICINE. Dr. Prophitt—Having used this medicine sufficiently long to test its virtue, and to satisfy my own mind that it is an invaluable remedy for Dyspepsia—a disease from which the writer has suffered much for six years—and being persuaded that hundreds who now suffer from this annoying complaint would be signally banefitted, as he has been, by its use, we deem it a duly we owe to this unfortunate class to recommend to them the use of this remedy, which has given not only himself but several members of his family the greatest resief.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

OR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, THE REPUTATION
this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been putified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until yed in such great numbers in almettevery section the country, that the public scarcely need to be ormed of its virtues or uses.

they were painfully afflicting, have been radically sured in such great numbers in alms et every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often this unseen and unfeit tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection through the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develors into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or mong the vitals. In the latter, inbarcles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumers formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this SABSAPARILLA is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afficed with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Fore Fyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also, in the more concealed forgus, as Dyspepsis, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgus, and the various ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduring these obstinate maladies by any medicine, But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorhees or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanna, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, relied quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of t
